1. Contest : 1st Adana Orange Blossom Carnival International Photography Contest

2. Organization:

The competition will be organized by OTOFOKUS Photography & Art with the contributions of Adana Metropolitan Municipality and the support of the Photographic Art Federation Turkiye (TFSF).

3. Categories:

1st International Photography Contest of Adana is in 1 section;

DIGITAL: Festivals/Carnivals (Monochrome & Color)

Events such as festivals and carnivals are organized for traditional, cultural, religious, entertainment, commercial and similar reasons.

Even though the purposes of these events are very different from each other, they vary from city to city and country to country, almost all of them bring together very different groups of people. These people know and understand each other, breathe the same air, have fun together and share common feelings during the event. Because festivals and carnivals are events that are essentially about unity, peace, tolerance and mutual understanding.

Festivals and carnivals, which contribute greatly to the promotion of cities, countries, societies, cultures, beliefs and natural beauties, are one of the most powerful types of tourism.

Many people who participate in these events record what they see and experience during the event with photographs and videos, immortalizing their memories and sharing it with their close circle or with the whole world on social media and other channels.

Participate in this competition with the photos you took at the carnivals or festivals you attended, and be a part of peace and intercultural friendship with your art.

We welcome you to Adana with your beautiful photographs.
